Poem for Nelson Mandela

Nelson Mandela led the fight against apartheid with words no guns needed
Envisioned a country full of peace and nature forever
Loved and cared for his nation
Spent 27 years in prison for his beliefs
Opposed greatly by others
Never gave in to apartheid
Moved people to find peace in their home country
Always loved all the people regardless of race
Nothing stood in his way
Did earn Nobel Peace Prize in 1994
Elected President of South Africa in 1999
Led South Africa to new life and peace
Always will be remembered

Dear Mrs.Hall's class,

8/23/93

I'm witnessing a wonderful event! Nelson Mandela just won the Nobel peace prize of 1993. We are at the garden of the white house in Washington DC. There are about 140,000 people at this event from all around the world. The whole crowd loved this epic event and enjoyed it as well. This event is the best ever and Mandela tied with De Kerk who also won the Nobel peace prize. I am having so much fun. It was a whole party over here in Washington DC and everybody is partying in the garden. It was great the crowd and I helped our selves to the buffet that set at table and I had a great time there.

My peaceable person Nelson Mandela

Nelson Mandela was born on July 18, 1918 in Mvezo, Quindu. Nelson grew up with a rich relative and the money was for Nelson to be educated for when he grew up he had a hard walk to freedom. Nelson Mandela had been greatly opposed by others and politics.

When Nelson went to college he went because he wanted to be a politician and graduated from college. Worked for A.N.C. for a good lifetime. Nelson Mandela went to jail for his beliefs.

Nelson Mandela led the fight against apartheid a government party, so they split into lots of groups for

Reflection

I like the quote about education because it's the most valuable weapon in life. The more homework that's done the better the grade you will get.

This quote means to study and then you get respect. I think education is a great value. I think racialism is the worst thing to say to someone. It's very bad language to use. This quote means to me that someone is rude if they call someone racist is rude.
