

SCASD Letterhead

June 10, 2008

To Whom It May Concern:

I highly recommend Calpurnia Caesar for part time enrollment at The Pennsylvania State University. I have had the pleasure of teaching Calpurnia in a Latin II course during the 2006-07 school year, and in an Advanced Latin III course during the 2007-08 school year. During this time, she has demonstrated that she is a hardworking student, capable of advanced coursework, and she has demonstrated personal growth and maturity.

Calpurnia has succeeded with the reading of advanced Latin, including the works of Cicero, Ovid, Eutropius, Pliny and most recently, she completed an independent project based on Livy's Rape of Lucretia. I was very impressed with the thoroughness of Calpurnia's project and the self-discipline with which she managed the different aspects of the project, including translation, research and a presentation. Calpurnia has maintained a high A average throughout this year and earned the Achievement Award for Advanced Latin III. She also received a Summa Cum Laude award for her performance on the National Latin Exam and was inducted into the National Latin Honor Society.

I recommend Calpurnia without hesitation. If I may be of further assistance to her, please do not hesitate to contact me at the phone number or e-mail address listed below.

Sincerely,

Maxima Magistra
Latin Teacher
mxm1@scasd.org