

course number and title	Y309, German 3
course description (paragraph)	Prerequisite: Successful Completion of German 2 In German 3, students continue to develop the four language skills: listening, speaking, reading and writing. They begin to learn more complex structural patterns and vocabulary. The class is conducted largely in German and students are expected to participate in all class activities. Assessments include oral and written activities, written summaries of readings, quizzes, tests and projects. course materials (links if appropriate)	Komm Mit Level II textbooks, workbooks, handouts, and vocabulary lists provided by teacher units taught (chronological sequence appropriate)	Ch. 5 Gesund Essen Ch. 6 Gute Besserung! Ch. 7 Stadt oder Land? Ch. 8 Mode: Ja oder Nein? Ch. 9 Wohin in die Ferien? Ch. 10 Viele Interessen!
major exams/projects; (keep syllabus up to date)	3 quizzes per chapter, an end-of-chapter portfolio project to assess both writing and speaking, end-of-year exam grading practice/policy	German is graded on total points from daily homework, quizzes, portfolios, and class participation. Homework from absences is accepted late. All other homework is not accepted late. Partial credit is given for lateness.
teacher contact information	Kimberly Geiger, kag12@scasd.org , 235-4956

German 3

Vocabulary	Grammar
body parts/expressing pain	expressing opinions with dative case products from the drug store	making comparisons house and home	adjective endings after ein and der places to live	adjective endings with comparative forms wishes for house/life	dative case with passen/stehen advantages/disadvantages	commands with reflexive verbs
sources of noise	subordinate clauses with wenn/ob transportation	prepositions with accusative case
fashion	prepositions with dative case
clothing/describing clothing	2-way prepositions vacation destinations/activities	wo/da compounds
asking and giving directions	verbs with prepositions television viewing	lassen as a helping verb automobiles	future tense with werden