

Introducing MLA in-text Citations!!

Correct the following sentences. There is an error in every sentence. All quotes come from the same book and the same page: 22 (just in case you need to add page numbers).

1. Marybell Troterford wrote the amazing book To Live with Turtles.
2. In her amazing book, Marybell Troterford provides scads of turtle information “Turtles are often confused with tortoises” (22).
3. Troterford follows a special turtle named Emmanuel. She claims that Emmanuel was “The loveliest turtle there ever was”.
4. According to Troterford, Emmanuel was “friendly, sweet, and delicious. (22).
5. After his mysterious and untimely death “Emmanuel continued giving to society by providing my [Troterford’s] dinner guests with soup and sandwiches.” (22)
6. One guest, Hawk Eye Bill, smacked his lips and claimed “that there is the tastiest bit of turtle there ever was (22).”
7. Emmanuel will live in our memories forever, and as Troterford notes: “He will live in my memory forever” (Troterford, 22).