

Italics? Quotations?

Name: _____

Use italics for books, plays, movies, newspapers, magazines, television shows, and CD's. Use quotation marks for smaller works such as short stories, poems, newspaper and magazine articles, television episodes, and song titles.

Animal Farm (book)

A Midsummer Night's Dream (play)

Napoleon Dynamite (movie)

Dark Side of the Moon (CD)

"A Rose for Emily" (short story)

"The Road not Taken" (poem)

"Money" (song)

1. Our teacher, Ms. Butcher, told us that her favorite poem in high school was The Raven.
2. One of Tom's least favorite movies is Mean Girls.
3. When Lily attends the cheerleader conference, she always takes a copy of her favorite magazine with her: Go Cheer!
4. Read the poem Mr Mustard. You can find it in the book Where the Sidewalk Ends.
5. Did you see the Family Guy episode called Too Much Cheese?
6. I purchased a new CD called Dance Revolution! 1970s Style. It's got that killer hit Disco Duck.
7. I subscribe to the magazine The Atlantic. This month there was a great article in it called How Sports are Ruining High School: The Real Reason U.S, Students are Falling Behind.
8. I love the book How to Eat Fried Worms.
9. Today's Centre Daily Times had a story called White House Open to Deal.
10. Tonight PBS is showing a Frontline piece called League of Denial, a piece about concussions in professional football and how the NFL handles the issue.