Dear Ms. Lowry,

I am a big fan of your writing, my favorite book in the whole entire world is The Giver. However, I'm not too keen on the ending because it puzzled me. Why did it have to end that way? Why couldn't you have just made Jonas get to safety without leaving a question in the reader's mind?

I am taking an English class this semester. It's really cool and I love it alot. Well, actually I don't like it at all, but whatever. One of the assignments is to write a business letter to someone we know and ask for a response. I wanted to write to you, because, I figured you would write me back.

Could you please send me a autograph? I would really like it. Please tell me what some of your favorite books are. I am interested in reading them.

Thank you very, very much.

Fondly,

Amy Allison
