HOW AND WHY CHARACTERS CHANGE

Title of Text: Lionel Lincoln & Waverly

Author: _____

Character's Name: Waverly

Directions: Provide evidence from the story to support your conclusions.

At the Beginning

Waverly is a chess prodigy. She is very smart and is the only girl in her school who plays chess. She is very competitive and wants to be the best. She is also very obedient to her mother, who is a strict disciplinarian.

At the End

Waverly has become a more confident and independent person. She has learned to stand up for herself and to make her own decisions. She is no longer so obedient to her mother and has developed her own sense of self.

How the Character Changed

Waverly's character changed from being a obedient and competitive chess prodigy to a more confident and independent person. This change was caused by her experiences in chess and her relationship with her mother.

Why the Character Changed

Waverly's character changed because of her experiences in chess and her relationship with her mother. Her mother's strict discipline and her own competitive nature pushed her to become a chess prodigy. However, her experiences in chess and her relationship with her mother also taught her to stand up for herself and to make her own decisions.
