

I'm planning field trips on Wednesday, May 22, Thursday, May 23, and Friday, May 24.

Frank has friends in Columbus, Ohio, Sacramento, California, and Parka, Alaska.

Green peppers, mushrooms, and onions are all swell on pizza, but I don't care for pineapple.

Ingrid Swenson, born in Denmark, was the first woman to climb Mt. Everest, and in addition, she was also the first woman to break the spaghetti eating world record.

Lydia has tattoos of a flying ship, aliens, and killer bees, but she doesn't have one of an anchor.
