

April Newsletter

Dear Community member,

It's April, and, no fooling, here's our latest newsletter full of stories and updates from around the district. Honestly, we're very proud to share them for your enjoyment.

Sincerely,

Chris Rosenblum & Nabil K. Mark
SCASD Communications

Singing the praises of "Hamilton"

Two Delta Middle teachers collaborated on a hybrid course inspired by the hit musical "Hamilton: An American Musical" that combines social studies and performing arts. Their partnership allows 27 students to learn about the American Revolution through exploring the history behind the show's characters and numbers. Read More

Makerspace offers new experiences

Once in the Makerspace area, students are free to settle into one station or sample as many as they wish. Activities change weekly but represent a mix of art, crafts, games, puzzles, and science, technology, engineering and mathematics (STEM) related offerings. Read More

Chris Weakland named athletic director

"Chris Weakland has been a high performing teacher, coach and administrator for many years, and our district's student athletes will benefit from his leadership of our athletics programs," Superintendent Bob O'Donnell said. Read More

Scholastic Art & Writing Awards

State High's Drew Spielvogel wins national gold and silver medals for his charcoal drawings. He will be honored in June at Carnegie Hall in New York City. Read More

Exploration-U science fair

The annual collaboration between State College Area School District STEM teachers and the Penn State Eberly College of Science Outreach and Science Engagement Office promotes inquiry. Read More

HOSA team wins six gold medals

“State High rocked Lancaster again this year,” Health Professions Teacher Donna Reich Woolley said. Read More

"Mathletes" win state championship

The Mount Nittany Middle School “mathletes” team of Zach Cheslock, Claire Jin, Tony Tzolov and Albert Zhang won the Mathcounts State Championship. Read More

DECA dominance

The Pennsylvania DECA State Conference yielded the State High chapter’s most impressive showing yet, with 22 students making it to the stage and 10 winning first places. Read More

NFL linebacker Nate Stupar giving back

The State High alumnus recently formed the State of Hope Foundation to help Centre County youth. Story courtesy of the Centre Daily Times Read More

"We Make State High Great" video

Diverse classmates, expressing solidarity in the “We Make State High Great” video, bring unity to the school. Read More

Our district continually has events happening at all grade levels. Please view our district calendar for up-to-date information.

View our calendar

Visit our website

Download our app in the App Store and Google Play

State College Area School District | 240 Villa Crest Drive, State College, PA 16801

Unsubscribe

Update Profile | About our service provider

Sent by nkm13@scasd.org in collaboration with

Try it free today