Sept. 16-20

"Where Everyday is an Adventure"

Room 217

Upcoming Events

- Sept. 27 MNE Fun Run! Deals about the Fun Run came home Friday in your child's Take Home Folder. If our school raises $10,000, Mr. Feldman said each child can spray a WHOLE can of silly string at him!! If our school raises $12,000, he will also duck tape himself to the wall for the entire lunch time!
- Oct. 3 PTO Meeting 6:30 MNE Library
- Oct. 7 Picture Day more details coming soon.
- Oct, 17 & 18 NO School for students...parent Teacher Conferences. More info coming in the next couple weeks.
- Families are welcome to join their child for lunch. We eat lunch from 11:45-12:15. If you plan to join your child, please contact me ahead of time to make sure there has not been a change in the lunch time for that day. This contact also allows for lunch to be ordered for guests. NO money can be exchanged during lunch serving times.

- We continue to establish our daily routines for Reader's Workshop, math, Number Corner, Phonics, Free choice, Play, morning tubs and Social studies/science. As one routine is established a new one is added.
- Many of Room 217 enjoyed the free lunch provided on September 16. YUM!
- Our names are important! We learned the kindergarten pathway to writing our names and taught our classmates.
- We learned about our Constitution and signed our Room 217 constitution.
- We worked on ABC, AAB and ABC patterns during math.
- During Reader's Workshop, we chose our own spaces for PRIVATE reading time and talked about differences between PRIVATE and PARTNER reading.
- We enjoyed retelling The Carrot Seed and Three Billy Goats Gruff. When retelling we can connect the pages using the words, "and then."
- We celebrated our friends, James, Kyla, Dorie, Finley and Zoey.
